

Secretary, CPRE Derbyshire

Salary: This is a voluntary role, expenses will be paid

Location: Home-based with bi-monthly meetings, usually in Belper

CPRE fights for a better future for England's countryside, both locally and nationally. We are seeking an enthusiastic Honorary Secretary to provide effective administration for the branch and to help us maintain the wonderful countryside of our county. If think you have attributes to be part of our busy branch please do apply.

This is a great opportunity to engage with our local branch network and provide much-needed support and administration, as well as being an essential conduit of information between the Branch Chair and volunteers.

To apply, please send your CV and supporting statement FAO Tim Silvester to: committee@cprederbyshire.org.uk

For more information about the role, please telephone Tim Silvester on: 01332 557281.

Please ensure your supporting statement provides concise and specific examples to demonstrate your competencies, achievements and skills addressing the criteria listed. You should also include your contact details along with your mobile phone number and your email address.
